NEW SCHEME PROPOSED.

Partial Government Ownership of the Transportation Lines.

Chichago, July 13—A dispatch to the Tribune from Washington says:

An entirely new and extremely radical proposition for control of the railroads has been advanced for the consideration of President Roosevelt. It involves partial government ownership of transportation lines by actual purchase of stock.

The suggestion has been made in a semi-official way, but whether President Roosevelt would adopt the scheme which is so nearly socialistic in its development may well be doubted. It has been stated, however, that he is actually considering such a recommendation and that it is part of the proposition to bring the railroads to time by securing receivers for them.

The two schemes fit into each other perfectly. It would be practically impossible for the government to secure the appointment of receivers or to control in any way receivers after they were appointed unless it had a monetary interest in the railroad. If it owned stock, no matter haw small an amount, it would have a standing in court, the same as the largest creditor of the road.

The idea of purchasing stock is a practical one, but it is undeniably government ownership on a small scale and inevitably would result in actual ownership in the long runu.

The theory of those who have advanced this scheme for the consideration of President Roosevelt is that by a comparatively small investment in the stock there might be a small measure of government ownership, but without any government control, so far as the running of the road is concerned.

KIDNAPED OWN DAUGHTER.

Elder Sister of Child is Said To Have Legally Adopted Her.

Savannah, Ga., July 13.—Mrs. J. Putnam, of Jacksonville, formerly of Savannah, has been placed in jail here on the charge of kidnaping her own daughter. She will be presented to the grand jury Monday. It may be that others instrumental in the effort to take the little girl, known as Lizzie Flake, from her sister may also be indicted. So far, however, Mrs. Putnam is the only one to have been arrested.

Several Years ago Mrs. Putnam married a widower at Meldrim. It is claimed they quarreled and she is said to have left him. The husband died and the woman, it is claimed, went to Meldrim and had the child kidnaped from its home. The ordinary refused to permit her to keep it. The little girl was given into the care of an orphan asylum.

The mother went to Jacksonville and returning Wednesday found that the child was living with an elder sister who had legally adopted her. The mother, it is charged, had the child enticed from home and attempted to get out of town with her.

The police were notified and arrested her at the Central railway station.

The mother claims that she did not know the child's sister had legally adopted her.

Quarantine on Gulf Coast.

New Orleans, July 13.—Dispatches from Galveston, Tex., say that a movement to make United States maritime uarantine universal on the gulf coast has been started by the Galveston chamber of commerce. Texas alone, of all the gulf states, maintains state maritime quarantine, the other states having turned their quarantines over to the federal government. The Galveston chamber of commerce has sent a request to Washington that for the sake of the welfare of the port, Galveston be given a quarantine station and regulations the same as those of other gulf seaports.

Reunion of the Thirtieth Georgia.

Atlanta, July 13.—The annual reunion of the Thirtieth Georgia regiment will take place on the last Friday in this month—July 26—at Douglasville. An invitation has been extended to all confederate veterans to attend. There will be martial music by a fine brass band and addresses by able spenkers.

SHOT TO DEATH FROM AMBUSH

Another Assassination Near Starke, Bradford County.

MURDERER LEAVES NO CLUE

Martin DeSue, a Well-Known Colored Man, Killed Last Wednesday, While Driving Leisurely Along the Road Home.

(Starke Telegraph.)

Martin DeSue, a well-known and highly respected negro living about seven miles northwest of Starke, was way-laid and shot to death about sundown Wednesday afternoon.

DeSue had worked all day at the farm of Wm. Reddish and was on his way home when he was shot. He was in a buggy and was driving along leisurely, eating a piece of watermelon that had been given him by Mr. Reddish. About mid-way between the home of Mr. Reddish and the home of Wilkerson Wainwright the road traveled by DeSue leads across a small drain skirted by a heavy growth of trees and underbrush. It was here that the assassin secreted himself and when his unsuspecting victim came along he fired the fatal shot and made good his escape. The assassin used a shot gun heavily charged with buckshot and the charge took effect in DeSue's right side, inflicting wounds from which he died in a few minutes.

The report of the gun frightened DeSue's horse and the animal ran away. Two sons of Mr. Reddish, who were working in a field that lies along the road, heard the shot and saw the horse coming down the road on a run and went to DeSue's assistance. They succeeded in stopping the horse, but the wounded man, who had fallen over on the buggy seat, was already gasping for breath and died without being able to speak to them.

Mr. Reddish sent news of the tragedy to near-by neighbors at once and Truby Wainwright came to town to notify the authorities. About 9 o'clock Judge Dekle, Sheriff Bennett and a small party of citizens left for the scene of the tragedy. Arriving there Judge Dekle empanelled a jury composed of W. D. Alvarez, S. L. Alvarez, Frank Burnsed, Dorsey Adams, Drew Reddish and J. W. Williams. The jury viewed the body and adjourned to meet again Friday morning at 9 o'clock, and the officers returned without having found the slightest clue to identify the assassin. Sheriff Bennett visited the locality again Thursday morning and spent half of the day in the hope that he might secure some information that would lead to the apprehension of the guilty party, but his trip was a fruitless one.

The murdered man was an old resident of the locality in which he lived and bore an excellent reputation.

Steckert Entertains.

A few friends of W. R. Steckert had the pleasure of being entertained at his home on East Lassiter street Thursday evening. Music was furnished by Miss Ruby DeLand, and Mrs. Hudson assisted Mr. Steckert to entertain.

Ice Cream, cake, and "White Ribbon Punch" were served in the commodious dining-room and many and humorous were the toasts offered. A. O. Steenburg was the appointed toastmaster of the evening. After which followed music and conversation, both interesting and instructive.

After posing for flashlights each in turn expressed their thanks to the gallant host, regretting that the evening was so short, and that the time had come to bring the pleasant meeting to a close.

Riches carry their own penalty, not the least being idleness and no opportunity of doing productive labor.

OPEN ATTACK MADE.

Russian Newspaper Jumps on France and Her Ambassador.

St. Petersburg, July 13.—An open attack on the French goverament and Ambassador Bompard appeared Friday in the Novoe Vremya, which a week ago began reviewing and tentatively condemning the Franco-Russian alliance.

It is supposed that the paper in this instance is serving as the mouthpiece of the powerful court party which is working in favor of closer relations with Germany.

The editorial is couched in intemperate and offensive language and seriously compromises the position of M. Bompard at St. Petersburg. It says:

"Tactless to the point of impudence has been the behavior of the ambassador in urging unasked advice on Russian internal affairs of which he is a perfect ignoramus. The French government also treated official Russian strangely, almost hostility. The German official press and the official utterances in the chamber of deputies have indicated all along that France was anxious to engage in negotiations with the new born douma over the head or behind the back of the government. Such insincerity and double dealing is calculated to give open encouragement to the Russian revolutionists who claim that France is more attentive to their voice than to the voice of the recognized and responsible representatives of the Russian empire."

Simultaneously the Novoe Vremya bitterly complains of the confusion and incapacity of Russian diplomacy, pointing to the failure of Foreign Minister Izvolsky to bring about re-establishment of Russian prestige.

WOULD-BE SUICIDE ARRESTED.

Man First Tried Hanging, Then Searched for Razor.

Atlanta, July 13.—Following an unsuccessful attempt to hang himself, Fred Cole, of 117 Fraser street, made every effort Thursday afternoon to find his razor with which he declared he would cut his throat.

Failing to remember that he carried it in his pocket, the police, who had been summoned, arrived and put him under arrest before he could do himself serious injury.

Cole returned home Thursday afternoon maudlin drunk, it is said, and about 5 o'clock tried to hang himself from a gas pipe that ran along the ceiling of his room. The pipe, however, broke just as the rope began to tighten around his throat, and he dropped unhurt to the floor.

He was determined, though, to end his life. Immediately the rope broke he began ransacking the house for his razor, declaring all the while that nothing could prevent him from cutting his throat.

Directly after his first attempt at suicide had failed, the police were summoned. Offices Bishop and Johnson responded. They arrived just when Cole was at the height of his search war the razor, and, after quite a struggler, placed him under arrest.

Determined to Suicide.

Anniston, Ala., July 13.—General Manager H. W. Sexton, of th eAnniston Electric and Gas Company, committed suicide here Thursday at his home on Tyler Hill by shooting himself with a pistol. He also cut an artery in his arm and turned on the gas in the bath room, where the deed was committed. No cause is known for the deed.

Killed by Sun Stroke.

Norfolk, Va., July 13.—A fatal case of sunstroke, the first of the season, was recorded in Norfolk on Thursday, the victim, Julian Clem, aged 56 years, foreman of the Sands-Key-Ruth company, paving firm, dying before reaching a hospital. The mercury registered 94 degrees.

Fire Loss of $150,000.

Cascade Locks, Ore., July 13.—A fire Thursday morning destroyed the Wind River Lumber company's mill. The fire driven by a heavy wind, the flames consumed every building between the mill and the river. The loss is over $150,000.

Soldiers Fight Duel.

Leghorn, July 13.—Lieutenant Turpin, of the Tenth regiment of infantry, was mortally wounded in a duel Thursday with Lieutenant Bonelli, of the same regiment. They fought for 22 minutes. Seven shots were exchanged.

BOARD PUBLIC WORKS IS NOW REORGANIZED

Vidal and Baird Took Their Seats Relieving Porter and Thomas.

OLD OFFICERS RE-ELECTED

Col. H. F. Dutton, President, and Col. W. W. Hampton, Secretary—Bonds in Large Sum Given, and Bonds Approved by City Council.

The Board of Public Works held a meeting in the office of H. F. Dutton & Co., bankers, Wednesday afternoon, at which time the members-elect of the board, J. H. Vidal and E. J. Baird, were properly installed, relieving Dr. W. Porter and S. J. Thomas.

The board reorganized by the re-election of Col. H. F. Dutton as president, and the re-election of Col W. W. Hampton as secretary. A great deal of interest was manifested at this meeting, and the new board is determined to keep up the liberal and energetic policy which has already been established by the old board.

The bonds of the members of the board, aggregating $25,000, were written by Ferdinand Bayer of this city, representing the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company, and immediately after the new board was organized the council held a meeting and approved the bonds.

The members of the Board of Public Works now comprise Col. H. F. Dutton, Col. W. W. Hampton, H. E. Taylor, J. H. Vidal and E. J. Baird, five men of conservative business methods. There is no doubt but that they will give the city an efficient administration.

Messrs. Taylor and Vidal were named as a street committee, whereupon the board adjourned.

SOLID TRAIN OF WOOD.

The Tampa and Jacksonville Brought Fifteen Cars on One Train.

The Tampa and Jacksonville railroad on Thursday hauled into Gainesville probably the first solid train load of wood ever brought here. The train comprised fifteen flat cars, all heavily loaded, the wood being consigned to the Gainesville Ice Company. It is said by those in a position to know that the freight on this consignment amounted to $145.20.

This is "some wood," to use the expression, and the Gainesville Ice Company will probably not be compelled to make another order for fuel for some time.

The Doctor Away from Home When Most Needed.

People are often very much disappointed to find that their family physician is away from home when they most need his services. Diseases like croup, colic and cholera morbus require prompt treatment, and have in many instances proven fatal before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. The right way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. By having it in the house you escape much pain and suffering and all risk. Buy it now; it may save life. For sale by all druggists.

Delightful Informal Reception.

A delightful informal reception was tendered Thursday afternoon by Mrs. W. H. Palmer, at her pretty home in North Gainesville, to Miss Ora Morse of Tavares, formerly of this city, who is visiting friends here.

The reception was of an entirely informal nature, and every guest was made to feel perfectly at home. The afternoon was passed in a most pleasant social way, during which delicious refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Several kodak pictures were taken of the group during the afternoon.

Having a Big Time.

There are a number of Gainesville folks sojourning at Daytona Beach, and all report that they are having "the biggest kind of a time" surf bathing and fishing. There are several families from this city, and fortunately they are near together.

Many more expect to go, some of whom will leave during the present week.

In all, the Gainesville colony is making the best of the opportunity, and judging from reports they are "getting their money's worth."

OLD LANDMARK IS GOING.

Old Building at Corner of East Main and East Liberty Street.

In order to give way to modern times and modern methods, the old building which for the past twenty-five years or more has commanded an imposing position at the corner of East Main and Liberty streets, and a building in which several fortunes have been made, is being torn away, and by the end of the present year a magnificent brick structure will have taken its place.

For seventeen years past virtually one concern has occupied this building, the original firm being Phillip Miller & Co. At that time M. B. Saunders was connected with the business. The firm of O'Donald & Saunders succeeded Phillip Miller & Co., and later this firm was supplanted by Saunders & Earle, who have just vacated the place. During all this time Mr. Saunders has been connected with the firm, which gives him the distinction of being one of the oldest merchants in the city, in time of service.

Saunders & Earle are now located in the new and up-to-date Graham building, East Main street N.

OAK HALLS WON OUT.

Defeated Elks in National Game by a Score of 12 to 4.

There was only a handful of spectators out to see the game between the Oak Halls, Jr., and Elk baseball teams Thursday afternoon, but those who did go appeared to enjoy the game thoroughly.

After a prettily played game, the score at the end of the ninth inning was 12 to 4 in favor of the Oak Halls, Jr. Those present enjoyed the game thoroughly, however, and left feeling satisfied that they had gotten their money's worth.

Party Has Disbanded.

The party of classmates of East Florida Seminary who have been here for several days as guests of H. LeRoy Taylor, have departed for their respective homes after a delightful visit, during which time they were afforded an opportunity of renewing acquaintances with many of their old Gainesville friends.

This party assembled here at the invitation of Sergeant Taylor, an old East Florida Seminary boy who is now a student of West Point, under the name of the Aris Club (or at least a remnant of it), a club to which the young men belonged in their school days here.

The party comprised Wm. D. Whitney of Fernandina, LeRoy Giles of Orlando, A. L. Herzog of Savannah, and A. Birdsey of Macon, Ga., the latter being here only two days—Sunday and Monday.

This gathering was a most pleasing and enjoyable feature, as the young men were intimately associated at the Seminary. It was a gathering which all will remember and appreciate, as Sergeant Taylor extended to his guests every courtesy while here

Messrs. Grunthal calculate to have the instrument installed in the course of the next ten days.

WILLIAMS IS IMPROVING.

Negro Who Tried to Burn His Way to Freedom Getting Along Nicely.

Thomas Williams, the negro who was severely burned a few nights ago in an attempt to burn his way out of the Newberry jail, and who was afterwards brought to this city, has been removed from the jail to a home in the Porter quarters, where he continues to receive medical attention at the expense of the county.

While Williams was severely burned, especially on one hand, Dr. J. M. Dell, the attending physician, thinks he can bring him through all right.

Williams' crime in Newberry was of a trivial nature, being only for fighting, but he got himself entangled in a pretty bad web when he set the jail on fire, as he may now be held upon a charge of arson.

DOWS ARRIVED SAFELY.

Reached Greenwood Without Mishap, and Mr. Dow is Feeling Better.

A letter received by The Sun from Mrs. W. E. Dow, who, with her husband and son, W. E. Jr., left Gainesville Saturday for Greenwood, S. C., bears information that the party reached their destination safely, and that Mr. Dow, who has been suffering from paralysis, is already feeling a great deal better, the change of climate having a most desirable effect.

Mrs. Dow orders The Sun sent to her address, as she says she cannot well do without it.

Friends of Mr. Dow will be glad to learn that he made the trip safely, and that he is feeling so much better. It is hoped that he will be restored to his normal health, and will return ready to resume his duties in his office.

Best Medicine in the World for Colic and Diarrhoea.

"I find Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to be the best remedy in the world," says Mr. C. L. Carter of Skirum, Ala. "I am subject to colic and diarrhoea. Last spring it seemed as though I would die, and I think I would if I hadn't taken Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I haven't been troubled with it since until this week, when I had a very severe attack and took half a bottle of the twenty-five cent size Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and this morning I feel like a new man." For sale by all druggists.

The Summer Normal.

The Summer Normal continues to grow in attendance, as new teachers are added to the roll each week. There were several new arrivals during the week just closed, and a number have arrived so far during the present week. In all, this is the most successful Summer Normal ever held in the State.

LIGHTNING GETS IN WORK AT MICANOPY

House Belonging to Dr. L. Montgomery Fired and Burned.

THE STORM WAS SEVERE

Weather for the Past Week Has Been Terrific, Causing Great Damage to Crops, Blowing Down Fences and Trees, With Loss of One Life.

Information reached this city Friday afternoon to the effect that a house owned by Dr. L. Montgomery, Micanopy, and occupied by a family of colored people, was struck by lightning, late Thursday afternoon, and destroyed by fire caused by the lightning, the house and contents being a total loss.

Reports state that the wind, rain and lightning in the Micanopy section Thursday afternoon was severe, and that many trees and fences were blown down, and crops severely damaged. The greatest immediate loss reported, however, is the loss of the house and contents as above stated.

The wind, rain and hail has played havoc with the people of this section during the past week. There was a severe storm at Rocky Point, which took one man his life, another storm of wind, rain and hail in the Windsor section, in which numbers of trees were blown down, obstructing public roads, and the wind and hail resulted in great damage to the crops.

All in all, the weather of the past week has caused great loss to the farmers and others of the county, and notwithstanding this the crops yet promise a prolific yield, the cotton crop being especially favorable.

IN THE MAYOR'S COURT.

Two White Boys Arraigned for Discharging Firearms in City Limits.

Two white boys, aged respectively about eighteen and sixteen, who should have known better, were arraigned in Mayor's court Friday morning upon a charge of discharging firearms within the city limits, having been arrested by Marshal Arnow for shooting rifles in East Gainesville. These young men are old enough to be readers of the morning paper, and it was a surprise when they stated to the mayor that they did not know it was against the law to discharge firearms in the city limits. The Sun has been full of accounts recently where parties were firing recklessly in that section of the city, and warned the offenders that it was a violation of the ordinances.

The defendants upon this occasion were excused, owing to their expressed ignorance of the law on the subject, but Mayor Thomas warned them against such future practice, impressing them with the fact that if they should come before the court again on a similar charge the court would not be so lenient.

A FINE PAIR.

Two Fine Pointers Received from a Friend by Col. Thrasher.

Col. B. A. Thrasher of this city, who is a great lover of dogs, has received from a kennel in Northern Alabama a couple of pups which are as fine as have ever been seen in the city. These pups are from the finest stock, registered as "Colson" and "Dell," and would be a credit to any sportsman. They came as a present from a friend, and it is said that the father of the pups is a prize-winner in several events, and is valued at $500, in fact, he sold for that amount a year ago.

The pups are pointers, and have attracted a great deal of attention among the sportsmen here.

EQUALIZATION FINISHED.

Members of City Council Have Been Kept at Work for Several Days.

After several days' hard work in equalizing the tax roll of the city of Gainesville, the City Council practically finished its labors Friday afternoon, and it is expected that the assessment will be made on Monday after.

Upon talking with a member of the Council regarding the matter Friday afternoon, he declined to give an estimate of what the levy would be, but stated that he would prefer to withhold the announcement was made by the council as a body.

INGLIS A GREAT PORT.

Exports for Year Ending June 30 Amounted to Nearly $1,700,000.

The port of Port Inglis, which is located at the mouth of the Withlacoochee river, is rapidly gaining in importance as a port of export, as large quantities of phosphate, lumber and naval stores are exported from that station annually to every country of the world.

Fred Cubberly of Cedar Key, collector of customs for the ports of Cedar Key and Port Inglis, stated a day or two ago that the exports from Port Inglis amounted to $1,700,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, and that the shipments comprised phosphate, lumber and naval stores, the greater proportion being phosphate.

Port Inglis is naturally the outlet for a large and prolific phosphate field, including Dunnellon, Holder, Floral City and Withlacoochee river sections, which are among the richest phosphate fields in the world, mining and shipping millions of tons annually.

In speaking of the business transacted and clearing from this port for the year, Collector Cubberly stated that he only had a record of the exports, and that the American or coastwise shipping amounted to a great deal. The largest number of vessels ever entered were those shown on the books for the fiscal year just closing, and some of the vessels were tremendous in tonnage, one steamship measuring five hundred feet.

GEO. STUART GETS DOG.

Was Impressed With Goodwin's Stock, and Insisted on Having a Pup.

Rev. George R. Stuart, the famous evangelist who is known from one end of the United States to the other, and who makes annual visits to the Bible Conference here, will in future have a Gainesville dog to "guard" his home in Cleveland, Tenn., and romp the meadows and sweet-scented clover fields during the hunting season.

While here at the last session of the Bible Conference Mr. Stuart became deeply in love with J. A. Goodwin's fine canines, and selected a fine English setter pup, a thoroughbred, which he instructed Mr. Goodwin to send him at the proper time.

The pup was shipped by express and will make a valuable acquisition to the canine division of Mr. Stuart's home.

SI BAILEY INSANE.

Was So Declared Friday by a Regular Lunacy Commission.

Si Bailey, the negro who was apprehended near Grove Park a few days ago and brought to this city, where he was placed in prison to await the action of the court, was Friday arraigned before a commission comprising Drs. J. H. Colson and J. M. Dell and George F. Mason, and adjudged insane.

This is the sixth case in Alachua county within the past five weeks, and the expense of handling these unfortunates have been heavy, aggregating a little more than $300.

An attendant is expected in a few days to convey the unfortunate man to the hospital for the insane at Chattahoochee.

PORTRAIT OF GEN. KIRBY SMITH.

Local Chapter, U. D. C., Presented With Same by His Widow.

Kirby Smith Chapter, U. D. C., held one of the most interesting meetings Thursday afternoon in its history, a large attendance being present in anticipation of the presentation to the chapter, through Col. W. W. Hampton, of a photograph of the great general for whom the organization is named, by his widow, who now resides at Sewanee, Tenn. Col. Hampton was to have presented the portrait in person, accompanied by a few appropriate remarks, but a professional engagement prevented. The letter from Col. Hampton accompanying the portrait, which bears the autograph of General E. Kirby Smith, was read to the chapter as follows:

"Gainesville, Fla., July 11, 1907.

"Mrs. J. M. Haile, President

"Kirby Smith Chapter, U. D. C., City.

"Dear Madam: It gives me very great pleasure to hand to you and your chapter the enclosed portrait of Gen. E. Kirby Smith.

"This photograph was handed to me by Mrs. E. Kirby Smith while in Sewanee, with the request that I convey the same to your chapter with her compliments and best wishes.

"With assurance of the highest esteem and best wishes for the members of your chapter, I am,

"Yours very sincerely,

"W. W. HAMPTON."

The portrait is highly appreciated by each and every member of Kirby Smith Chapter and will be enlarged and handsomely framed, as will also a photograph of the general, in uniform, which was presented to the chapter some time since by Dr. J. F. McKinstry.

Among other business transacted at the meeting was the enrolling of two new members. The ladies continue to manifest increasing interest in their laudable work, for which they are to be highly commended.

THE ROCHELLE ELECTION.

Special District Again Ordered, and Three-Mill Tax Voted.

The voters of the Rochelle special tax sub-school district held an election Thursday to determine whether or not the district should be continued as a sub-school district, with the result that out of twelve votes cast only one was cast in opposition. It is believed that some good-natured voter marked his ballot that way "just for a joke," as the sub-school district has proved a good thing for Rochelle.

The ballot showed a unanimous vote for a three-mill tax, and J. A. Tucker, A. B. Zetrouer and J. K. Feaster were elected as trustees.

The election passed off quietly, the vote being small. All who voted, however, with the exception noted, were enthusiastic for continuing the sub-school district, as this system has been regarded as much better for the Martha Perry Institute, which is enabled to secure more competent teachers and longer terms.

The Smile

That won't come off appears on baby's face after one bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge, the great worm medicine. Why not keep that smile on baby's face? If you keep this medicine on hand, you will never see anything else but smiles on his face. Mrs. S——, Blackwell, Okla., writes: "My baby was peevish and fretful. Would not eat and I feared he would die. I used a bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge and he has not had a sick day since." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Some Fine Melons.

The Sun received a letter Friday from Bland which bore the information that A. J. Nettles of that section had raised the largest melons and the choicest in his section of the county, the largest weighing sixty pounds.

Mr. Nettles is well pleased over his output this season, as he has raised not only large but luscious and well developed melons. He has also realized handsomely from his farm.

Your Liver

Is out of order. You go to bed in a bad humor and get up with a bad taste in your mouth. You want something to stimulate your liver. Just try Herbine, the liver regulator. A positive cure for constipation, dyspepsia and all liver complaints. Mrs. P——, Ft. Worth, Texas, writes: "We have used Herbine in my family for years. Words can't express what I think about it. Everybody in my household are happy and well, and we owe it to Herbine." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

S.S.S. FORTY YEARS OF CURES

Long experience and thorough testing have proven S. S. S. to be the King of blood purifiers and the greatest of all tonics. For nearly half a century S. S. S. has been used in the treatment of blood and skin diseases of every character, and so satisfactory have been the results that it is now the best known and most widely used blood medicine on the market. S. S. S. attracted attention as soon as it was placed on the market by curing promptly those diseases for which it was recommended, and we have so jealously guarded its first good reputation, by keeping it up to its standard in manufacture, that it now has the unequalled and glowing record of "Forty Years Of Cures." For Rheumatism, Cancer, Chronic Sores and Ulcers, Malaria, Skin Diseases, Contagious Blood Poison, and other diseases due to an impure or poisoned condition of the blood there is nothing that equals S. S. S. It counteracts and removes the poisons, cleanses the system of all unhealthy matter, cures the disease permanently, and restores strong, robust health. When the blood is thin and anaemic and unable to nourish the system as it should, S. S. S. builds it up with the needed properties, and being a tonic, invigorates and builds up the entire system. It goes to the very bottom of all blood troubles, and in this way reaches deep-seated and inherited cases on which other sarsaparillas and tonics have little or no effect. Not only is S. S. S. certain in its results, but it is an absolutely safe medicine. It has the distinction of being the only blood medicine on the market that is guaranteed purely vegetable. If you are in need of a blood purifier, begin the use of S. S. S., the medicine that has proven its worth by forty years of cures. Book on the blood and any medical advice free to all. No charge for either. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.

There is no doubt that many young Americans blew themselves on the Glorious Fourth—mostly up.

We note the wedding of Mr. Ko Chow, described as a "wealthy Chinese mandarin." Doubtless that was a catch not to be sneezed at—despite his name.

The Manatee Record says "a reasonable estimate of this season's crop of oranges places it at about twenty per cent. The shortage is due to the drought; however, it is thought this will be made up for in the price for fruit."

The Orlando Democrat claims that gold exists in large quantities beneath the soil of Orange county, but the farmers are too busy cultivating their crops and counting the cash receipts therefrom to bother with digging for the precious metal.

The Georgia Legislature has re-elected United States Senator Bacon by a unanimous vote, and former Congressman Bankhead has been elected by the Alabama Legislature to succeed the late Senator Morgan. Bankhead's defeat of Bankhead for Congress three years ago has thus resulted in the latter's promotion.

The prohibitionists will soon force another election in Orange county, the legal sale of intoxicating liquors now being permitted. It is not unlikely that both Marion and Orange counties will be added to the "tall, dry column" during the year 1907. An effort will also be made to place Putnam county in the same column.

Bradford county is threatened with another wet and dry election, and the good women of the county have appealed to the voters not to sign the petition requesting such election to be called. The people of Bradford are no more likely to vote the county "wet" again than would the people of Alachua be likely to do so. The legal sale of whiskey has been "tabooed" in these counties for at least many years to come.

It is to be regretted that the County Commissioners could not see their way clear to have the tax levy for the present year at least one and a half mills lower, so as to have overcome the one and a half mills increase in State taxes. Taking into consideration the increase in the assessed valuation of property and the authority to transfer the surplus in the fine and forfeiture fund to other funds, we are quite sure they could have afforded this much relief to the people without impairing the county's credit.

If the old brindle cow should get out, many a daddy would walk the streets half the night looking for her, but let a twelve-year-old kid fail to show up and the old guy retires for the night without even an anxious thought. We dare not be hopeful over the future of the human race as long as father and mother think more of rounding up a $15 cow or a $5 shoat than they do of corralling their sons and daughters. In many places the young folks have a dangerous way of tramping the streets or warming a bench in the park until the stars grow dim.

THE KNOWNOTHING SPIRIT.

The Palatka News, one of the most ably edited weekly papers in the State, says:

"Florida is pre-eminently the State of native Americans. Outside of Key West and Tampa, with their large number of Cuban cigar makers, and at Tarpon Springs, with its Greek spongers, Florida's population is largely native American.

"This fact always makes its favorable impress upon the traveled citizen of the United States who lingers long in Florida. It is such a pleasing sensation to be among Americans that he does not fail to comment favorably upon it.

"It is a fact also that had its weight in the defeat of the immigration bill before the last Legislature. The average Floridian hesitates to encourage a condition that means ultimately the elimination of native influence, both moral and political. He knows we gain nothing in morals from the average immigrant, and that he soon learns to get busy in politics.

"In nineteen of the Northern States the number of the foreign-born and their immediate descendants exceeds the number of the native-born. In the largest cities the number is two-thirds, and even three-quarters. There are more Cohens than Smiths in the New York directory. New England, even, is no longer puritan, but foreign. So is it in the Middle and Central West, and not only in the city and town, but in hamlet and country.

"The average Floridian is not so absorbed in business affairs as to overlook the loss from a social, moral and political standpoint which would result from a large influx of foreigners. It may be that this is prejudice, but whatever it be it is here present.

"It is probably a relic of the old 'Knownothing' spirit of 1856, which, had it not been for the more important issue of slavery and State rights, the South together with a large part of the country would have stood on a platform of 'America for Americans,' forgetful of the fact that we are all the children of immigrants.

"Congressman Frank Clark's idea of securing settlers for Florida from the farming sections of other States in the Union should appeal to us all. Such immigrants, though largely foreign, would yet have the advantage of having served their 'probation' or novitiate in other States."

LET HIM EMIGRATE.

It probably will be a wholesome lesson for a number of Northern philanthropists engaged in elevating the colored race at long range to read the speech of Bishop Turner of the African Methodist Episcopal church, made in New York last week. Among a number of other things he said was the remark that he had no use for America, despised the American flag, and wished that all the negroes would emigrate from a country where they were so ill used as in the United States. It seems that such a remark comes very near branding as an undesirable citizen a man who never ought to have been made a citizen in the first place. The last section of his remark, however, is one with which most people in the United States can heartily agree. If Bishop Turner can only find some country that will accept him and his fellows of like sentiment as residents, the rest of the country will watch without a single regret the spectacle of the Bishop as an ebon Moses leading his following into the new Canaan. The only real regret is that while he will continue to rant and orate, he will never carry out his threat to emigrate. Such views as he has voiced are the worst possible training for the other members of his race to hear. And they do not offer much encouragement to the white population to continue staggering along with the "White Man's Burden."

Citizens of East Gainesville are justly "kicking" at the way the sidewalk over Sweetwater branch, on the south side of East Liberty street, is laid. The Elevator, whose editor traverses this street four times daily, says: "Instead of being on a level with the balance of the work, it is apparently a floor or more lower, and as the surface water drains are inadequate to carry off the water when it rains, it runs over this place to the depth of several inches, which has to be waded through." The Board of Public Works should remedy this defect at once.

Saw Airship, Not Snakes.

A number of people in Pensacola saw an airship, with lights, pass over that city on the night of July 4th. They must be using a new brand over in that town.—Lake City Index.

Good for Old Levy.

Bradford county pays 6 mills school tax for a five months' term. Levy county gets six months for 5 mills. The difference is in favor of Levy county.—Bronson Times-Democrat.

Let the Band Play.

We extend congratulations to our sister city of Gainesville that it has the State University, and there will be no more hard feelings between that city and this.—Lake City Index.

Let the band play, "Cheer, My Brother, Cheer."—Bronson Times-Democrat.

Concedes a Few Laps.

Ocala has a fire department to be proud of and its fire station would be creditable to the largest city in Florida. It looks thoroughly metropolitan, judged by the picture in The Banner of Tuesday. In this respect we will concede that Ocala is a few laps ahead of live oak—at the present time.—Live Oak Democrat.

The Value of the Hen.

The Orange county hen, if treated with due consideration, will be grateful enough to furnish the money to build first-class roads all over the county. In proportion to cost, care and labor, she is doing far more for our farmer than his horses, cattle and lands. By nature and practice she is a tax-payer and a debt raiser.—Orlando Reporter-Star.

Manatee Plentiful.

The sight of from three to five large manatee coming out of the Eau Gallie river may be seen almost any morning at this season, according to The Record. They exhibit no fear of boat or man, so long as no hostile demonstration is made. The manatee seem to have increased considerably in numbers in the southern waters since legal protection was extended to them.—Times-Union.

Work for the Commission.

It is said by The Madison Recorder, whose editor is secretary of the Railroad Commission, that "It is a violation of the law for a railroad to collect freight charges on any part of a shipment which does not arrive at destination. Both the agent and the company are liable to punishment for violation of this law." Well, we paid one this week, and the commission can have our receipt if it desires to go about it.—Lake City Index.

Assures Great Fun.

The announcement of Col. T. J. L. Brown that he was out for the Senate, has been received with almost hilarious joy by the State press, for it dissipates the fear that there was to be no humor in the campaign because of the absence of a humorist among the candidates. Col. Brown's candidacy is regarded as a joke so brilliant and so purely original that it does not have to trace its ancestry back to anyone of the thirty-seven antique side-splitters from which Mark Twain says all subsequent jokes have come.—Live Oak Democrat.

Data for Frank Clark.

A planter in Delray raised 1,300 crates of tomatoes this year on two and a half acres of ground. They netted him $1.50 per crate, making a total net profit of $1,950 from the patch. It is such facts as these that give the Northern farmer cold feet, and sooner or later he is sure to come to this prolific, yet undeveloped country, where opportunities lay broadcast. In regard to the fact stated above, it may be interesting to know that this was the fourth tomato crop from this same piece of land, but a cabbage crop had been grown between them.—West Palm Beach Sun.

Sedatives Rather Than Ginger.

Gen. Law, in a recent issue of The Bartow Courier-Informant, admonished the Florida newspapers that State officials cannot properly be spoken of as "cabinet officers." The distinction he draws in the following paragraph is born out by the dictionaries:

"The distinction between cabinet officers and State officers is plain. The former are appointed by the President and must be confirmed by the Senate. They hold office entirely at the will of the President, and are responsible only to him; the latter are elected by the people, need no confirmation, are responsible to the people and can be removed only by impeachment."—Times-Union.

Building Boom at Bronson.

There will be something doing in the building line in Bronson this summer. Two brick stores and three new residences are already in sight, with others to hear from. Brick are being placed on the ground for Proctor & Smith's two-story block. Mr. Archilles, who built the court house, has this contract, and will push it to completion. S. L. Bean's new brick block will also go up soon, and the residences of Mrs. S. M. Thomas and H. S. Sutton will go up at once. J. P. Hopping of Gulf Hammock has also contracted for the erection of a house here. So it can be seen that the sound of the hammer and saw will make music here this summer.—Bronson Times-Democrat.

Two "Whoppers."

A farmer has made a discovery that will be of vast importance to farmers during a dry season. He has found that by planting onions and potatoes in the same field in alternate rows the onions, being so strong, bring tears to the eyes of the potatoes in such volumes that the roots of the vines are kept moist and a big crop is raised in spite of the drought. It is time to commence putting out your onion sets now.—Orlando Reporter-Star.

We once knew a truck-grower in the Oakland section of Orange county that was persuaded to put syrup water into the hills in which his watermelons were planted to make them sweeter, and he also used a solution of vinegar and iron-filings around his egg-plants to keep off rust.—Lake City Index.

Words of Sympathy.

To his good and admired friend, Adrian P. Jordan, of The Punta Gorda Herald, the editor of The Tribune wishes to send an expression of the sincerest and most solemn sympathy in this hour of his bereavement. Those who know the gentle, the loving heart of our friend will understand how heavy must be the hand of this [illegible] tion, how bitter this cup of [illegible]

For near a quarter of a [century] has been bound to his devoted [wife] by the bands of a love deeper, truer and tenderer than the [ordinary] that blessed the lives of most [men], and now to lose this helpmeet [just] she was entering the smoother, [more] beautiful period of middle life, [made] and hallowed by his devotion, [is] crushing blow that beats him [down] well-nigh to despair.

But death, so cruel in tearing [asunder] the earthly lives of those [whom] has joined together, cannot [put] asunder the everlasting [union] spirit; and He who "wipes all [tears] from the eyes" lest they [blind] vision of the soul, will comfort [our] friend with an insight into [the] measurable beyond, where [he] one day will find rest from [his] and regain the joyful [companionship] of his best beloved who has [gone] him.—Tampa Tribune.

Before the forests of Lebanon [were] destroyed Palestine supported [in] affluence ten million people. [Its] mountains have long been [desolate]. Forbidding slopes, barren and [grim] rear their weird forms sharply [against] dismal and desolate valleys. [Only] four hundred thousand people [live] in all the region, and most of [them] are in wretched, hopeless [poverty]. Syria, once maintaining a [million] of prosperous towns and [cities] Antioch having a population [of] a million—is at present the [scene] irreparable ruin. The destruction [of] Syria's forests, begun 2650 B. C. [and] lowed by the disappearance [of] soil and the decay of her [industry] would alone have produced [this] fect. Babylon, once capital [of] world, is a heap. Nineveh, [Tyre] Carthage, once the seats of [power] civilization, and abundantly [blessed] by generous Nature for [human] life, are desolate wastes. [Man] stroyed the forests, and lands [that] once flowed with milk and [honey] transformed into deserts.

Four hundred years ago there [lived] in France one Bernard Palissy, [famous] mous in history as the "Potter [of] Tuileries," who, in addition [to] manufacture of excellent [pottery] a noted philosopher and writer. [Many] of his writings deal with the [soil] and forests, and in one of [them] he sagely observes: "For [when] forests shall be cut all [springs] cease, and they who practice [this] shall be driven out to eat [grass] Nebuchadnezzar and the beasts [of] field. I have divers times [tried] to set down in writing the [reason] shall perish when there [shall] be no more wood, but [though] had written down a great [many] did preceive that there could [be] end of my writing, and having [diligently] considered, I found there [was] not any which could be followed [without] out wood." The same is true [today]

Doctor Hillis declares there [are] only two kinds of people in the [world] —the people who live in the [shadow] and the gloom and those who [live] the sunny side of the street. [The] shadowed ones are sometimes [called] pessimists; sometimes people [of] ancholy temperament; sometimes [they] are called disagreeable people, [but] wherever they go, their character [mark] is this: Their shadow always [falls] on before them. They are [always] looking down for pitfalls and [for] stones and thorns on which [to] that they do not even know that [there] are stars in the skies.

If everybody thought exactly [alike] it would be no sign in this wide [world] that their thinking is right.

SEVERAL NEGROES BADLY WOUNDED

As Result of Altercation Near Jonesville Settlement.

TROUBLE OCCURRED AT DANCE

Alfred Williams, a Former Resident, Killed by Lightning at Dunnellon the Remains Interred in Jonesville Cemetery—Personal Notes.

Jonesville, Fla., July 13.—The colored people of this place intended having a dance at Henry Latson's on the night of July 8, but there arose a disturbance which is now causing four of the number to be laying up. There was quite a lot of shooting, in which Ambus Welch, Richard Niblack, Calvin Grant and Fortune Perry were wounded. All are doing as well as could be expected.

Alfred Williams of Dunnellon was buried at Jonesville cemetery yesterday. Mr. Williams was engaged in carpenter work, and when a cloud came up he and other carpenters went to a dry shed to seek shelter from the rain. Lightning struck the shed, killing him instantly, and rendered the others unconscious. His mother, Mrs. George Williams, and other members of the family accompanied the remains to this place. This was Mr. Williams' former home and his friends here were shocked at the receipt of the news.

Personal Notes.

John Hamilton and sister, Miss Cena, made a business trip to Newberry yesterday.

Sonny Snowden of Micanopy was in our midst Saturday and Sunday, visiting at the homes of R. P. Miller and J. J. Jones. Mr. Snowden sold a fine horse to J. J. Jones.

Jack Garland of Newberry spent yesterday with his friend, Wm. H. Pickett.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. McCall and children of Largo visited Mrs. McCall's mother, Mrs. W. J. Hamilton, last week.

Mrs. T. R. Pickett has gone to Tampa, where she will visit her sister. From there she will go to Fort Meade, where she will visit her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Pickett.

The six-months'-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Maxey Holt, Jr., of Newberry died last Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Zeke Crosby, and was buried in the Jonesville cemetery Sunday morning. The numerous friends of this young couple extend sympathy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Fortson and son of Newberry visited Mrs. W. J. Hamilton Sunday, as did Mrs. George Smith and children.

Miss Irene Miller went to Newberry last Tuesday to consult Dr. S. A. Hussey in regard to some dental work. She was accompanied by her father, R. P. Miller.

The Cummer commissary has been moved from Tioga to the camp here, which helps to make Jonesville lively.

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

From Sunday's Daily Sun.

Col. F. Y. Smith of Alachua was in the city yesterday. Col. Smith is just back from Chicago, where he has been taking a post-graduate course in law. He left Saturday afternoon for his home in Alachua.

Nearly all of the schools have been supplied with teachers and Dr. Kelley, county superintendent, says that he will soon have the list ready for publication. Dr. Kelley has been very busy securing teachers to supply all his demands.

W. J. Williams of Trenton was in the city yesterday. Mr. Williams has been engaged in the mill business at Invernes for the past several months, but has severed his connection there and returned to Alachua county, where he will again engage in the mill business.

Attention is called to the ad. of The G. W. Hyde Company, which will be seen elsewhere in this issue. The Hyde Company advertise great bargains for Monday, and those who are in the habit of trading with this popular store know that they have the goods to back their assertions.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Haddock of Richmond, Va., are in the city on a visit to Mrs. Haddock's parents, Judge and Mrs. Mason. Mr. Haddock will only be in Gainesville for a few days, but his wife will remain until her father, Judge Mason, goes to Virginia for his summer vacation.

J. W. Williamson, who formerly resided at Micanopy but for several years a resident of Fort Lauderdale, Dade county, is in the city. Mr. Williamson reports his section of the East Coast in a prosperous condition, and says that the work of draining the Everglades, from what he can learn, is progressing satisfactorily. He assisted in constructing both the dredge boats now used in the work.

S. H. Wienges, clerk of the circuit court, has just returned from a pleasant visit to Jacksonville. Mr. Wienges will leave tomorrow for Charleston, S. C., where he will visit relatives for several days. When asked by a representative of The Sun if he intended visiting other points in South Carolina besides Charleston he remarked, "I am going to visit South Carolina, I don't know how many places. I am going to see just as many of my relatives as I can find."

MANY ARREARS IN WATER PAYMENTS

Men of Great Wealth Are Behind, But Not Cut Out of Service.

THE SERVICE SEEMS UNFAIR

A Poor Man of Ordinary Circumstances Cut Off, But Men of Money Are Permitted to Run Indefinitely, With No Attempt to Stop Service.

It would be surprising to the average observer to note the number of delinquent water renters in Gainesville. As a rule, if a poor fellow, or a man in only ordinary circumstances, fails to pay up and "make good" at the end of the quarter, he is "cut out," and deprived of his service, and required to pay a dollar before the water is turned on again.

But the reporter noticed many prominent people of means, some of whom are worth, it is said, a half-million dollars, where their rents have run for a period of six to nine months, and still these people have no restrictions put upon them.

It is safe to say that at this time there are not less than 250 patrons of the city water works in arrears anywhere from three to nine months, while others are compelled to "pay or quit."

THE FOURTH AT ARCHER.

Hundreds of People Assembled There on Nation's Birthday.

Archer, July 12.—The Fourth of July was very appropriately celebrated at Archer. Owing to the threatening rain the crowd assembled in the Town Hall. The committee of the Woodmen of the World who had charge of the celebration was J. A. Hamblin, Gen. L. Taylor, Monroe Hamblin, and under their management everything passed off finely. The program consisted of the welcome address by Mayor Chamblin, who introduced Senator Willis of Bronson. He made a short address, and then Hon. Frank Clark made a stirring address. His subject was on the line of "Patriotism," and brought forth rounds of applause.

Patriotic songs were sung, and music was rendered on the piano by Miss Hattie. When the call to dinner was made the large crowd went to the basement hall below, where the tables were groaning with good things—plenty of barbecued beef and chicken filled with an abundance of good things to eat.

Col. Frank Clark was accompanied by Mr. Carter and Mr. Lartigue of Gainesville, all of them being the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Baukknight. Rain interfered with the outdoor sports, but the social feature at the hall made up for anything lacking. All had a splendid time and expect to celebrate again the next Fourth of July.

Sonny Snowden of Micanopy took in the picnic.

T. A. Duren left yesterday for Largo to spend a month with his parents.

Mrs. S. C. DePass is visiting relatives in Memphis, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiles and children will leave in a few days for points in South Carolina for a short visit.

J. R. Wells leaves on Monday for Jamestown, New York, Baltimore and Washington. He expects to be gone two weeks.

Miss Hattie Smith of Micanopy has accepted a position in the millinery department of C. W. Baukknight's store.

Mrs. F. S. Curl is in Gainesville under the care of Mrs. Dr. Robb. Mr. Curl is talking of moving to Gainesville for a few months.

The Archer depot is undergoing a much needed repair and enlargement.

Mrs. Eula Tucker is visiting friends in Gainesville this week.

C. M. DELL BUYS PROPERTY.

Has Acquired a Handsome Lot in East Gainesville, and Will Build.

Chas. M. Dell evidently has considerable faith in the future of Gainesville, since he has just purchased on North Roper avenue, East Gainesville, a handsome lot 90x135, upon which it is said he will erect an elegant modern home.

The property is situated directly opposite the home of Col. J. W. Patton, in one of the most desirable sections of the city.

CAPTAIN ELMORE EXPLAINS.

Says His Regiment Was Located at Fort Sumter, S. C.

Capt. A. R. Elmore of Alachua, who sent an interesting communication to The Sun regarding his trip to the Richmond reunion and the reminiscences of his personal career, calls The Sun to task for saying that the First South Carolina Regiment, of which he was a lieutenant, was stationed at St. Augustine, Fla.

"There was a vast difference in those days between resting quietly in St. Augustine and living day after day, week after week, month after month, under one of the most terrific and continuous bombardments the world has ever known."

Captain Elmore may have been unconscious of the fact, and no doubt was, but he certainly wrote "St. Augustine," and the compositor is not to blame for the error.

However, we are glad to correct the statement, as Captain Elmore is deserving of all the credit which belongs to him.

AN ENJOYABLE AFFAIR.

Miss Lucille Colclough Entertains in Honor of Mrs. Joel H. Tucker.

One of the most enjoyable social functions of the season was an informal card party given by Miss Lucille Colclough at the elegant home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Colclough, West Liberty street, Thursday evening, in honor of her guest, Mrs. Joel H. Tucker of Live Oak.

The affair was an informal one, only a few select friends being invited out to have a "game." There were only two tables, but the game of progressive whist was a lively and interesting one.

During the evening refreshments of delicious ice cream and cake were served, and altogether the evening was one which will be long remembered by those who participated.

A MODEL SPEECH.

Address of Lincoln on Gettysburg Battlefield at War's Close.

(From The Nashville American.)

A recent incident causes The Macon Telegraph to reprint Lincoln's Gettysburg address, which, it says, "can never be too often read by all who would appreciate the power, the beauty, the music of spoken language." The Charlotte Observer also reproduces the speech, and adds:

"This is universally recognized as one of the finest pieces of literature in the language and those who have no copy of it should preserve this. We are indebted to The Macon Telegraph for the information that 'Lincoln was not the orator of the day on which he made his simple but famous utterance—in its simplicity, comprehensiveness, breadth, and brevity sublime. Another orator of note had prepared and delivered the oration of the occasion. His name we do not readily recall at this moment. Lincoln had briefly noted down his thoughts on a stray scrap of paper. The words flowed naturally, simply, pellucid, each a shining drop of pure Anglo-Saxon that sparkled like a diamond as it fell. It made a prose poem, scarcely the length of a sonnet, yet epic in its grasp and greatness.'

"'His name we do not really recall at this moment'—this of the orator of the occasion, who had doubtless made elaborate preparation for it. His words have 'gone down to nothingness and night,' while the simple, natural sentences of Lincoln will live forever."

The orator of the day was Edward Everett of Massachusetts, statesman, orator, preacher, editor of The North American Review, Governor of Massachusetts, member of Congress, minister to England, Secretary of State in Fillmore's cabinet, Senator from Massachusetts, nominee for vice-president in 1860 of the Constitutional Union party, and the intimate friend of Sir Walter Scott. When he delivered the address of the day at Gettysburg, November 19, 1863, he was 70 years old. He died fourteen months later, January 15, 1865. His address was a finished oration, with a peroration that brought a storm of applause. Lincoln had written his address, and delivered it in a voice which not many heard. It was as follows:

"Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth upon this continent a new nation conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. Now, we are engaged in a great Civil war, testing whether that nation or any nation so conceived and so dedicated can long endure. We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that the nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this. But in a larger sense, we cannot dedicate, we cannot consecrate, we cannot hallow this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it far above our power to add or detract. The world will little note, nor long remember, what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us, the living, rather to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us; that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion; that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain; that this nation under God shall have a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people and for the people shall not perish from the earth."

When Mr. Lincoln had finished, Mr. Everett declared that while the elaborate address which he had delivered would be soon forgotten, Mr. Lincoln's would live as a masterpiece of English and eloquence. Mr. Everett seems to have been correct. Two well-informed newspapers confess they have forgotten the name of the principal speaker on that occasion. Mr. Everett was a scholar, a graduate of Harvard, a student in English and German universities, a highly polished, cultured gentleman of wide learning and winning association, while Mr. Lincoln's education was obtained in a log school house, by the firelight, among men and amid nature. No finer letter was ever written than the one he wrote to the mother of five sons who died in battle. It is as follows:

"I have been shown in the files of the war department a statement that you are the mother of five sons who have died gloriously on the field of battle. I feel how weak and fruitless must be any words of mine which should attempt to beguile you from your grief for a loss so overwhelming—but I cannot refrain from tendering to you the consolation which may be found in the thanks of the republic they died to save. I pray that our Heavenly Father may assuage the anguish of your bereavement, and leave you only the cherished memory of the loved and the lost, and the solemn pride that must be yours to have laid so costly a sacrifice upon the altar of freedom."

This letter is a gem—marred by the expression, "I have been shown"—an error common with with many writers. This letter and his Gettysburg speech established Mr. Lincoln's reputation as a matter of expression.

DEATH FROM NATURAL CAUSES

Is Verdict of Coroner's Court on the Death of Mrs. Hancock.

London, July 12.—A jury in the Kensington coroner's court has rendered a verdict of "Death from natural causes" in the case of Mrs. Hancock, wife of Walter Swinburne Hancock, formerly an Episcopalian clergyman of Chicago, who died March 23 last, the cause of death being certified as appendicitis.

Owing to the suspicions of the woman's son, who is a lawyer, the body was exhumed and he testified at the inquest that he thought Hancock poisoned his wife in order to obtain her property.

BUTCHER KNIFE USED

Alleged Horrible Double Murder In Buffalo, N. Y.

PAINTER ACCUSED OF CRIME

With Butcher Knife, It Is Said Man Stabs to Death a Saloonkeeper and a Waitress in a Saloon Restaurant in Buffalo, N. Y.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 12.—Peter Farrestel, a well known saloonkeeper and sporting man and Marie Smith, 32 years old, a waitress in his saloon restaurant, were murdered early on Thursday.

George Hodson, a painter, is accused of the crime.

The Smith woman formerly lived with Hodson, and her refusal to leave Forrestel's place and resume her relations with Hodson, are the alleged causes of the double murder.

Hodson was arrested a few minutes after the crime was committed. He was covered with blood, but declared that he had no recollections of what occurred.

Forrestrel was sitting in front of his saloon when it is alleged Hodson rushed up and stabbed him twice with a butcher knife. Hodson, it is alleged, then rushed upstairs to Marie Smith's room. She was in bed asleep but was awakened by the bursting open of the door. As she sprang from bed, Hodson, it is alleged, stabbed the woman in the breast and abdomen.

Forrestal died in a few minutes.

The woman was taken to a hospital where she died on the operating table.

Forrestal was 60 years old. His brother, Edward, is a captain on the Buffalo police force.

HARRIMAN THINKS

He Has as Much Right as United States to Carry Coal.

New York, July 12.—E. H. Harriman, in an interview published on Thursday, has something more to say about the proposal to carry coal from this seaboard to San Francisco in foreign bottoms, which was advanced in his behalf by J. W. Jungen, the representative at the inspection of the Morgan liner Creole, on Tuesday.

"I had no idea that the statement would be spread so far and wide as it has been," said Harriman. "However, my point is this: Way should I not send coal around Cape Horn in foreign ships when the government intends doing the same thing? Consider the matter fairly. Here is the United States government with a steamship line thoroughly American—meaning my own—available for carrying coal, but instead of patronizing this American line the government goes ahead in opposition and engages foreign bottoms.

"Isn't that a peculiar situation? Way should I not make a test case of the matter? I think that perhaps I shall."

Take the Postmaster's Word for It.

Mr. F. M. Hamilton, postmaster at Cherryvale, Ind., keeps also a stock of general merchandise and patent medicines. He says: "Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is standard here in its line. It never fails to give satisfaction and we could hardly afford to be without it." For sale by all druggists.
